PSY210- Introduction to Developmental Psychology

I CONTACTS

Instructor
Name: Dr. Anna Michelle McPhee (she/her)
Email: michelle.mcphee@mail.utoronto.ca
Office Hours: Mondays & Wednesdays 3-4 pm or by Appointment
Office Location: Zoom
https://utoronto.zoom.us/j/81869636520
Meeting ID: 818 6963 6520
Passcode: Psychology
Instructor Bio: I completed my PhD in developmental psychology at the University of Toronto. My research focuses on how young children start to understand different types of social affiliations. Specifically, I am interested in investigating the different types of social cues that are used by children to detect and infer kinship relationships between a mother and child, as well as the developmental trajectory of this ability.

Teaching Assistants
Name: Reem Ayad (she/her)
Email: reem.ayad@mail.utoronto.ca
Name: Sagana Vijayarajah (she/her)
Email: sagana.vijayarajah@mail.utoronto.ca
Last Names for Grading Assignments: A-Lim
Last Names for Grading Assignments: Liu-Z
*Last names for grading are subject to change. Updates will be posted on Quercus.

Email Policy
Students are encouraged to email the course instructor regarding questions or concerns about course content or to set-up a virtual meeting. Emails should originate from students’ designated UToronto email account. Emails will be responded to within 48 hours, excluding weekends/holidays. Emails should include “PSY210” in the subject line.

Question & Answer Sessions
We will schedule drop-in question and answer sessions with the instructor and the TAs on Zoom throughout the term (especially right before the term tests and final exam). Please check Quercus regularly for scheduling updates.

II COURSE OVERVIEW

Course Description: The developmental approach to the study of behaviour with reference to sensorimotor skills, cognition, socialization, personality, and emotional behaviour.
Prerequisites: PSY100H1/PSY100Y5/PSYA02H3/COG250Y1
Exclusion: PSY210H5/PSYB20H3
Class Time: In Person on Mondays & Wednesdays from 6 pm – 9 pm.
Duration of Classes: May 9th to June 20th 2022.
Study Day: June 21st, 2022.
Final Exam Period: June 22nd to June 27th, 2022.
Class Location: LM 158
Privacy Statement: Given the delivery of the course material, there may be recording of class materials and discussions.

Learning Outcomes
At the end of this course, students should be able to:
1. Understand key aspects of developmental psychology, such as the physical, cognitive, emotional, communicative, social, and moral growth of infants and children.
2. Understand key research methods used to examine development, as well as the history of the field that has shaped foundational theories.
3. Connect their knowledge of developmental psychology to overarching themes in the field.
4. Practice reading and interpreting empirical research in developmental psychology, and communicating these findings to a general audience.
5. Apply their knowledge to real world scenarios and theoretical situations.
6. Cite scholarly research using APA 7th edition format.

Course Website
All registered students for the course have access to Quercus. This will serve as the class website, where all lecture slides and course materials will be posted. This will also be the site where the assignments will be submitted, and marks will be made available. Students are expected to check this website regularly. Important announcements will be made here. Use of the website’s Discussion Board is strongly encouraged for non-private inquiries (e.g., questions about course content and the running of this course, but not emails reporting illness or other private matters).

Assigned Readings
Required Textbook:

A digital option is available through this link: https://www.campusebookstore.com/integration/AccessCodes/default.aspx?bookseller_id=96&Course=STG+PSY210+DEVELOPMENTAL+PSYCHOLOGY&frame=YES&t=permalink

Lectures
Course videos and materials belong to the course instructor, the University, and/or other sources depending on the specific facts of each situation, and are protected by copyright. In this course, students are permitted to download session videos and materials for their own academic use, but they should not copy, share, or use them for any other purpose without the explicit permission of the instructor.

IV EVALUATION/GRADING SCHEME

Course Assessments and Grading

Quizzical: 10%

Quizzical Creation: Quizzical is an educational software designed to help students engage more deeply with course materials. Students can access it via Quercus. Students will be assigned to write two multiple-choice questions, which will be graded and count for 6% of their grade (3% x 2 questions = 6%). These questions will be due the day after the assigned class by 11:45 pm (see course schedule). Detailed instructions will be available on Quercus.

Quizzical Quizzes: Students will also be expected to complete a weekly quiz for 8 out of the 9 lectures for the remaining 4%. These quizzes must be completed by 11:45 pm Monday evening (see course schedule for due dates). To get full participation credit, at least 10 questions must be completed per quiz, and the average grade on all questions must be at least 70%. Missed Term Work Accommodation Requests will not be accepted for Quizzical Quizzes. Instead, students’ top 8 out of 9 quizzes will be calculated for their final score. Detailed instructions will be available on Quercus.

Science Blog: 25% (See Breakdown Below)

Part 1 of Assignment: 5%
Assignment Instructions: Students will be asked to select one out of 4 scientific articles posted on Quercus and to provide an APA 7th edition citation for this article. This assignment will be due via Quercus Wednesday, May 18th by 11:59 pm (Class 4). Collaboration is strictly prohibited. More details will be posted on Quercus.

Part 2 of Assignment: 20%
Assignment Instructions: Based on the student’s selected article, students will be asked to write a science blog conveying the findings from the scholarly article to a general audience, and connecting the material to the ‘real world’, as well as overarching themes from developmental psychology. A detailed rubric and further instructions will be posted on Quercus Monday, June 20th by 11:59 pm (Class 12). Collaboration is strictly prohibited.

Term Test & Final Exam: 65% total (See Breakdown Below)

There will be two term tests and a final exam. The term test and final exam will be held in-person. More details about these assessments will be posted on Quercus. The registrar will be scheduling the final exam, so stay tuned to the Class Announcements for more details.

1) Term Test #1 (15%): This test will cover lecture and readings from classes 1 to 4 on Wednesday, May 25th.
2) Term Test #2 (15%): This test will cover lecture and readings from classes 6 to 9 on Monday, June 13th.
3) Final Exam (35%): This test will cover lecture and readings from classes 1 to 12.
V   COURSE POLICIES

Remarking Policy: Timeline & Protocol
Students have 2 weeks from when the work was returned to submit a request for remarking and to bring concerns about the assignment to the instructor’s attention.

Late Policy
There will be a 10% late penalty for every day an assignment is late. Students will be provided with 1 ‘late ticket’. One ‘late ticket’ will allow for one 24-hour extension to an assignment without penalty. In other words, one ticket is equal to an extension of one day. Students may apply the ‘late ticket’ to part 1 or 2 of their Science Blog assignment. ‘Late tickets’ may not be applied to Quizzical nor for the term tests nor the final exam.

Please use this link: https://utorontopsyched.az1.qualtrics.com/ife/form/SV_095EXNalmmul59A and code: PSY210 to request the use of a ‘late ticket’. It is important to note that students must complete the Qualtrics form to request the use of a ‘late ticket’ in advance of the due date of an assignment. Completing the form after the deadline for an assignment will not be accepted. For work missed due to extenuating circumstances please see the Missed Term Work Policy below.

Academic Integrity
Academic integrity is essential to the pursuit of learning and scholarship in a university, and to ensuring that a degree from the University of Toronto is a strong signal of each student’s individual academic achievement. As a result, the University treats cases of cheating and plagiarism very seriously. The University of Toronto's Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters (https://governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/system/files/2020-03/Code%20of%20Behaviour%20on%20Academic%20Matters%20July%202019.pdf) outlines the behaviours that constitute academic dishonesty and the processes for addressing academic offences. Potential offences include but are not limited to: using someone else’s ideas or words without appropriate acknowledgement, submitting one’s own work in more than one course without the permission of the instructor in all courses, making up sources or facts, etc.

All suspected cases of academic dishonesty will be investigated following procedures outlined in the Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters. If students have questions or concerns about what constitutes appropriate academic behaviour or appropriate research and citation methods, please reach out to the course instructor. Note that students are expected to seek out additional information on academic integrity from the course instructor or from other institutional resources (for example, the University of Toronto website on Academic Integrity: https://www.academicintegrity.utoronto.ca).

All students, faculty and staff are expected to follow the University’s guidelines and policies on academic integrity. For students, this means following the standards of academic honesty when writing assignments, collaborating with fellow students, and writing tests and exams. Ensure that the work you submit for grading represents your own honest efforts.
Plagiarism—representing someone else's work as your own or submitting work that you have previously submitted for marks in another class or program—is a serious offence that can result in sanctions. Speak to me or your TA for advice on anything that you find unclear. To learn more about how to cite and use source material appropriately and for other writing support, see the U of T writing support website at http://www.writing.utoronto.ca. Consult the Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters for a complete outline of the University's policy and expectations. For more information, please see https://www.artsci.utoronto.ca/current/academic-advising-and-support/student-academic-integrity and http://academicintegrity.utoronto.ca.

University's Plagiarism Detection Tool

Normally, students will be required to submit their course essays to the University's plagiarism detection tool for a review of textual similarity and detection of possible plagiarism. In doing so, students will allow their essays to be included as source documents in the tool's reference database, where they will be used solely for the purpose of detecting plagiarism. The terms that apply to the University's use of this tool are described on the Centre for Teaching Support & Innovation website (https://uoft.me/pdt-faq).

Accommodations

The University provides academic accommodations for students with disabilities in accordance with the terms of the Ontario Human Rights Code. This occurs through a collaborative process that acknowledges a collective obligation to develop an accessible learning environment that both meets the needs of students and preserves the essential academic requirements of the University’s courses and programs.

Students with diverse learning styles and needs are welcome in this course. If you have an acute or ongoing disability issue or accommodation need, you should register with Accessibility Services (AS) at the beginning of the academic year by visiting http://www.studentlife.utoronto.ca/as/new-registration. Without registration, you will not be able to verify your situation with your instructors, and instructors will not be advised about your accommodation needs. AS will assess your situation, develop an accommodation plan with you, and support you in requesting accommodation for your course work. Remember that the process of accommodation is private: AS will not share details of your needs or condition with any instructor, and your instructors will not reveal that you are registered with AS.

Religious Accommodations

As a student at the University of Toronto, you are part of a diverse community that welcomes and includes students and faculty from a wide range of cultural and religious traditions. For my part, I will make every reasonable effort to avoid scheduling tests, examinations, or other compulsory activities on religious holy days not captured by statutory holidays. Further to University Policy, if you anticipate being absent from class or missing a major course activity (such as a test or in-class assignment) due to a religious observance, please let me know as early in the course as possible, and with sufficient notice (at least two to three weeks), so that we can work together to make alternate arrangements.
Equity, Diversity and Inclusion
The University of Toronto is committed to equity, human rights and respect for diversity. All members of the learning environment in this course should strive to create an atmosphere of mutual respect where all members of our community can express themselves, engage with each other, and respect one another’s differences. U of T does not condone discrimination or harassment against any persons or communities.

Land Acknowledgement
We wish to acknowledge this land on which the University of Toronto operates. For thousands of years it has been the traditional land of the Huron-Wendat, Haudenosaunee, Anishinaabe, and the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. Today, this meeting place is still the home to many Indigenous people from across Turtle Island and we are grateful to have the opportunity to work on this land.

Centre for Teaching and Learning
The Centre for Teaching and Learning (CTL) is available to support students in their writing, English language, math and stats, and professional development needs. It offers online tutoring and consultations and has a variety of helpful online resources. For more information, please visit CTL’s Academic Learning Support site.

Mental Wellness
As a student, you may experience challenges that can interfere with learning, such as strained relationships, increased anxiety, substance use, feeling down, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation, financial concerns, family worries and so forth. These factors may affect your academic performance and/or reduce your ability to participate fully in daily activities. Everyone feels stressed now and then – it is a normal part of university life. Some days are better than others, and there is no wrong time to reach out.

There are resources for every situation and every level of stress. There are many helpful resources available through your College Registrar or through Student Life (http://studentlife.utoronto.ca and http://www.studentlife.utoronto.ca/feeling-distressed). An important part of the University experience is learning how and when to ask for help. Please take the time to inform yourself of available resources.

Department of Psychology Missed Term Work Policy

For missed term work (assignments and term tests) due to illness, emergency, or other mitigating circumstances, please follow the procedures outlined below.

Note:
- The following reasons are not considered sufficient for missed term work: travel for leisure, weddings, personal commitments, work commitments, human error.
- Missed Final Exams are handled by the Registrar’s Office and should be declared on eService.
- Instructors cannot accept term work any later than five business days after the last day of class. Beyond this date, accommodations are only possible via the Registrar’s Office petition process.

To submit missed term work accommodation requests in PSY210, please use this link: https://utorontopsych.az1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_eED2kuwlytvtCjca and code: PSY210

ILLNESS OR EMERGENCY accommodations:
For missed work due to ILLNESS OR EMERGENCY, complete the following process:
1. Complete the Request for Missed Term Work Accommodations Form.
2. Declare your absence on ACORN (Profile & Settings > Absence Declaration)
3. Email both of the following items to the course email WITHIN 7 DAYS of the missed work:
   a. the Request for Missed Term Work Accommodations Form
   AND
   b. a screenshot of your Self-Declared Absence on ACORN

Note:
- If you are unable to submit your request within 7 days, you must still email your instructor within the 7 day window to explain the nature of the delay. Exceptions to the 7 day deadline will only be made under exceptional circumstances.
- If your absence is declared on ACORN, we do not require any additional supporting documentation (e.g. medical notes) to support your missed term work accommodation request.

ACADEMIC CONFLICT accommodations:
For missed term work due to an ACADEMIC CONFLICT (e.g. two midterms at the same time):
1. Complete the Request for Missed Term Work Accommodations Form.
2. Take screenshots of your course Quercus pages that demonstrate the conflict.
3. Email the form and screenshots to the course email at least two weeks (10 business days) before the date of the activity, or as soon as possible if it was not possible to identify the conflict earlier. Requests sent after the activity deadline may not be accommodated.

Note:
- Multiple assignments due on the same day are not considered conflicts. Students are expected to manage their time effectively to meet assignment deadlines.
- Back-to-back tests/quizzes are not considered conflicts. Only overlapping activities are conflicts.

RELIGIOUS CONFLICT accommodations:
For missed term work due to a RELIGIOUS CONFLICT:
1. Complete the Request for Missed Term Work Accommodations Form.
2. Email the form to the course email at least two weeks (10 business days) before the date of the activity, or as soon as possible if it was not possible to identify the conflict earlier. Requests sent after the activity deadline may not be accommodated.
ACCESSABILITY SERVICES accommodations:

For missed TERM TESTS due to ACCESSABILITY REASONS:

- Contact your AccessAbility consultant and have them email the course email detailing accommodations required.

For missed ASSIGNMENTS due to ACCESSABILITY REASONS:

- If your desired accommodation is within the scope of your Accommodation Letter (e.g. your letter includes “extensions of up to 7 days” and you need 3 days):
  1. Complete the Request for Missed Term Work Accommodations Form.
  2. Email the form AND your Accommodation Letter to the course email specifying how many days extension you are requesting.

- If your desired accommodation is outside the scope of your Accommodation Letter (e.g. your letter includes “extensions of up to 7 days” but you need more time than that):
  1. Contact your AccessAbility consultant and have them email the course email detailing the accommodations required.

Accommodation Procedure:

After submitting your documentation, you will receive a response from your instructor or TA. This form does not guarantee that you will be accommodated. The course instructor reserves the right to decide what accommodations (if any) will be made. Failure to adhere to any aspect of this policy may result in a denial of your request. You are responsible for checking your official U of T email and Quercus course announcements daily, as accommodations may be time-critical.

For missed assignments, do not wait for the instructor’s response to resume work on your assignment. Extensions may be as short as one business day, depending on the nature of the illness/emergency. Complete your assignment as soon as you’re able, and email it to your instructor.

For an anticipated absence (e.g. a scheduled surgery or an illness with a prolonged recovery period), if you would like to request accommodations in advance, submit a Verification of Illness Form completed by your doctor AND the Request for Missed Term Work Accommodations Form to the course email. Absences can be declared up to 14 days into the future on ACORN.

Missed Accommodations

If an accommodation is granted but a continued illness/emergency prevents you from meeting its requirements, you must repeat the missed term work procedure to request additional accommodations. Please make it clear in your subject line that you are requesting a second accommodation. E.g. If you are given an extension but are still sick and need more time, or if you miss a make-up term test, you must submit another Request for Missed Term Work Accommodations Form and declare your extended absence on ACORN. *Note: In the case of a missed make-up test, an opportunity to write a second make-up test may not necessarily be provided.
